Session#1 – Video review -Common infractions, Line of scrimmage, downfield, kicking / passing etc

Wray Dunn and Chris Wall (NBFOA)

Wray Dunn - Started officiating Football in 2006 after work many years as a Hockey official. I have been very lucky to have been surrounded with a great group of officials to learn from and have worked many High School/Minor Playoff and Championship games. I have been working the AUS/USports level for approximately 10 years now and have been in multiple Loney Bowl games as well as the Mitchell and UTECK bowls. Love learning from the best and passing on to the officials of the NBFOA and other FOA's.

Chris Wall -Started officiating in 2013, I really wanted to stay in the game as a coach. Being a full time Paramedic never allowed me to commit to the sport as a coach. Officiating allows me to be involved in a sport I love. I have been given so many opportunities I would never have gotten normally. I have been apart of 2 Canada Cup experiences, UTECK Bowl, Loney Bowl & many Championship Games at the Provincial Level. I work with a great group in New Brunswick, and have been privileged to learn from so many others across Canada in my career. I am excited to continue to always be a student of the game and always be prepared, to keep having fun at all levels of the sport.

Session#2 How to become a better official, tips and tricks from the pros (Deep officials.)

CFL presenters. Steve Dolyniuk-field Judge

Hailing from Winnipeg, "Stone Cold" Steve Dolyniuk is a veteran CFL field judge. Steve is heading into his 20th professional season in 2021 having already worked 310 games and 5 grey cups - most notably the on-field FJ for both the 2018 and 2019 grey cup games.
